HYDE PARK CAPITAL ADVISORS, LLC ANNOUNCES SALE OF TECHNOLOGY RESEARCH CORP. TO COLEMAN CABLE, INC.

Tampa, Florida – May 18, 2011 – Hyde Park Capital Advisors, LLC (“Hyde Park Capital”) is pleased to announce the recently completed sale of Technology Research Corp. (Nasdaq: TRCI), a recognized leader in providing cost-effective engineered solutions for applications involving power management and control, intelligent battery systems technology and electrical safety products to Coleman Cable, Inc. (Nasdaq: CCIX), a leading manufacturer and innovator of electrical and electronic wire and cable products. Coleman Cable, Inc. finalized the transaction following the completion of a previously announced tender offer for all of the outstanding shares of Technology Research Corp. for $7.20 per share in cash and a subsequent short-form merger. Hyde Park Capital served as the investment banker and financial advisor to Technology Research Corp. on the sale of the Company.

“We greatly appreciate the efforts of Hyde Park Capital who helped us throughout the entire transaction process and played a key role in the successful sale of TRC,” commented Robert Woltil, Interim CEO and CFO of Technology Research Corp. “Hyde Park Capital’s level of detail and knowledge played a key role in the success of this complicated transaction.”

“Coleman Cable, Inc. is a leader in the wire and cable industry and its acquisition of Technology Research Corp. expands its electrical products platform and provides an immediate and significant entry into the intelligent battery and power management systems businesses,” said John McDonald, Senior Managing Director at Hyde Park Capital. “This transaction is a significant win for both the buyer and seller, as well as for the shareholders of Technology Research Corp.”
